

Position Title	Irish Research Council Laureate Project Scholar
Project	Death and Burial Data: Ireland 1864-1922. Funded under the Irish Research Council Laureate Award 2017-18.
Faculty	Faculty of Arts Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Limerick, Ireland.
Entry Requirements	Minimum 2H1 BA or MA Degree in the Historical Sciences or related discipline.
Salary/Stipend	16,000 + EU Fees non-EU candidates will have to make up fee shortfall.
Closing Date	14 January 2019
Contact	Ciara.breathnach@ul.ie
Additional Information	Using data from the General Registrar Office of Ireland and Coroners' inquests held at the National Archives of Ireland this project aims to train and produce two PhDs in the fields of medical and digital humanities. Both topics have been defined in the overarching project aims as follows: PhD 1. Tuberculosis, digital humanities and disease mapping, Ireland 1864-1922 PhD 2: The Irish coroners' courts as spectacle. For more information contact Main Principal Investigator Dr Ciara Breathnach Ciara.breathnach@ul.ie
How to apply	CV, University transcripts, 2 academic references and a letter of application. In your letter state which position you wish to apply for, and provide 1,200 words on why you think your skills and experience meets the demands of the post. You may also discuss your methodology, potential research questions and how you would locate your work in the state of the art in the field. Submit your application by email to DBDirl@ul.ie by 5pm on 14 January 2019. Shortlisted candidates will be called to interview.