NEIL ROBINSON
PUBLICATIONS

Books
(Monographs & co-authored)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Edited Books:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(editor) Institutions and political change in Russia,</td>
<td>Basingstoke and New York: Macmillan and St. Martin’s Press, 2000, pp. xii + 235</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(editor) Reforging the weakest link: global political economy and post-Soviet change in Russia, Ukraine and Belarus,</td>
<td>Aldershot: Ashgate, 2004, pp. ix + 166,</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Refereed Journal Articles:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>‘What was Soviet ideology? A comment on Joseph Schull and an alternative’,</td>
<td>Political Studies, 1995, 43 (2): 325-332</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘The economy and prospects for anti-democratic development in Russia’,</td>
<td>Europe-Asia Studies, 2000, 52 (8): 1391-1416</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Book Chapters

‘Institutions and change in Russian politics’, in Neil Robinson (ed.) Institutions and political change in Russia, Basingstoke and New York: Macmillan and St. Martin’s Press, 2000, pp.1-10

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Working Papers:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>“‘The party is sacred to me’: Gorbachev and the place of the party in Soviet reform, 1985-1990’, Russian and Soviet Studies Discussion Paper, no.10, Colchester: Centre for...</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Russian Studies, University of Essex, 1991, pp.38

‘The post-communist experience in Russia: from stalemate to stalemate’, The New European Seminar Papers, no.1, Huddersfield: Department of Politics, University of Huddersfield, 1993, pp.1-9

““Have model will travel”: Russian and Western reform agendas”, in Patrick Dunleavy and Jeff Stanyer (eds) Contemporary Political Studies 1994, Belfast: UK Political Studies Association, 1994, pp.395-402

‘Ideology and perestroika: Western political science explanations of change in the USSR and the absence of a concept’, York Papers in Politics, no.3, York: Department of Politics, University of York, 1994, pp.45

‘Putin, the “Normalization” of Russian Politics and Europe’, Limerick Papers in Politics and Public Administration, no.7, Limerick: Department of Politics and Public Administration, 2005, pp.14

‘State, regime and Russian political development’, Limerick Papers in Politics and Public Administration, no. 11, Limerick: Department of Politics and Public Administration, 2008, pp.26

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Conference Papers:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

‘Parliamentary politics under Gorbachev’, paper presented to a conference on ‘Why did Gorbachev fail?’, Istituto Universitario Orientale, Naples, April 1992

‘The post-communist experience in Russia’, paper presented to a conference on ‘The Post-Communist Experience’, University of Huddersfield, January 1993
Bringing ideology back in: perestroika and the contradictions of Soviet politics’, paper presented to the British Association of Slavonic and East European Studies annual conference, University of Birmingham, April 1993

‘From corporate socialism to corporate capitalism? The politics of transition in Russia’, paper presented to a workshop on ‘The role of the state and the political process’, conference on Privatization and Socio-Economic Change in Central and Eastern Europe, Jagellonian University, Krakow, Poland, October 1993

"Have model will travel": Russian and Western reform agendas’, paper presented to the Political Studies Association annual conference, University College, Swansea, April 1994

‘Legality, legitimacy and reform in the USSR: the paradoxes of ideology, modernity and the Gorbachev reforms’, paper presented to a conference on Legality and Ethics in Russian and Soviet Thought, University of Leeds, July 1994

‘Path, process and the development of Russian politics’, paper presented to the Political Studies Association annual conference, University of Ulster, April 1997

‘Classifying Russia’s party system. The problem of relevance in a time of uncertainty’, paper presented to conference on Political Parties in Post-Communist Russia, University of Glasgow, May 1997

‘One step forwards, two steps backwards (again): the problem of state autonomy in Russia’ paper presented to a workshop on ‘The evolution and transformation of the modern state: processes of change’, European Consortium for Political Research Joint Sessions, University of Warwick, March 1998

‘A permanent struggle to rule? Boris Yeltsin and the problem of state and executive autonomy in Russia’, paper presented to the Political Studies Association annual conference, Keele University, April 1998

‘Democratization and the international economy: the case of Russia’, paper presented to a workshop on ‘Democratization and the role of external actors’, ECPR Standing Group on International Relations Third Pan-European International Relations Conference and Joint Meeting with the ISA, Vienna, September 1998

‘The dulled edged of husbandry: globalisation and the failure of state reconstruction in Russia’ paper presented workshop on ‘National models of political economy’, European Consortium for Political Research Joint Sessions, University of Mannheim, March 1999

‘Democracy or authoritarianism? The economy and Russia’s political future’, paper presented to the PSA Post-communist Politics Specialist Group Annual Conference, School of Slavonic and East European Studies, London, February 2000

‘Constructing the crisis of the Russian state’, paper presented at the VI International Council for Central and East European Studies World Congress, University of Tampere, Finland, July-August 2000

‘International economy, states and post-communist reform outcomes’, paper presented to the Fourth ECPR Standing Group on International Relations International Conference, University of Kent at Canterbury, September 2001

‘Social power and post-Soviet economic transformation’, paper presented to a conference on ‘Political culture and civil society in the Black Sea Region’, Centre for Black Sea and Central Asia, Middle Eastern Technical University, Ankara, Turkey, October 2001

‘State types, state strategies and post-communist economic development’, paper presented to the British Association of Slavonic and East European Studies annual conference, University of Cambridge, April 2002

‘Getting Putin right: expectations of change in contemporary Russian politics’, paper presented to Irish Association of Russian and East European Studies annual conference, University of Ulster, May 2002

‘Path dependency, global economy and post-communist change: why is the former USSR so different?’, paper presented to International Studies Association/Central and East European International Studies Convention, Budapest, Hungary, June 2003

‘Globalization and the evolution of the Russian state’, paper presented to a conference on The regional dynamics of Northeast Asia and Russia’s globalization in the 21st century: cooperation, competition or conflict?, Research Programme on Globalization and Russia’s Regions, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Seoul, Republic of Korea, April 2004

‘State capture in Russia: who can we blame?’, paper presented at the Fifth ECPR Standing Group on International Relations International Conference, The Hague, Netherlands, September 2004

‘State and regime building in post-communist Russia: evolution and stability in comparative perspective’, paper presented to the British Association of Slavonic and East European Studies annual conference, University of Cambridge, April 2005

‘A periphery of their own? Russia and the post-Soviet space’, paper presented to conference on Globalisation and the Semi-Periphery, University of Limerick, March 2006

‘Putin: power and policy: political economy’, paper presented to British Association of Slavonic and East European Studies annual conference, University of Cambridge, April 2007
‘Resources and Russia’s political development’, paper presented to Irish Association of Russian, Central and East European Studies annual conference, University of Limerick, May 2007

‘Politics and economic development in Russia under Yeltsin and Putin’, paper presented to Political Studies Association annual conference, Manchester, April 2009

(with Maura Adshead), ‘Late development and state developmentalism – never the twain? Towards a political economy of “post-Celtic tiger” Ireland’, paper presented to Political Studies Association annual conference, Manchester, April 2009

‘Debt, trade, the end of communism and beyond’, paper presented to Irish Association of Russian, Central and East European Studies annual conference, NUI Maynooth, May 2009

‘Patrimonial political economy and global economy’, paper presented to the ISA-ABRI conference, Rio de Janeiro, July 2009

‘Why not more wars in the former USSR?’, paper presented to International Studies Association Annual Convention, New Orleans, February 2010

‘The limits of authoritarian developmentalism: patrimonial capitalism in the post-Soviet space’, European Consortium for Political Research, Joint Sessions of Workshops, University of Westphalia, Münster, March 2010

‘Zhivoe tvorchestvo naroda and the foundation myth of perestroika: the construction of a reformist narrative’, paper presented to Irish Association of Russian, Central and East European Studies annual conference, University College Dublin, April 2010

‘The limits of authoritarian developmentalism in Russia: patrimonial capitalism and the global credit crunch’, paper presented to a conference on ‘The International Crisis and the Post-Soviet States’, University of Glasgow, May 2010
| ‘Institutional influences on party development’, paper presented to a conference on ‘Political Parties in Russia’, University of Birmingham, June 2010 |