

KBS PhD Colloquium

The KBS PhD Colloquium offers an opportunity to network, support and learn from fellow PhD researchers/candidates, and is in addition to the supports provided by Graduate Research Centre and the KBS Assistant Dean Research (ADR) Office.

The aim of the KBS PhD colloquia series is to provide a forum for all KBS PhD researchers to get to know each other, support and learn from each other, and to discuss and present their research to their peers.

These innovative sessions take place monthly are chaired and organised by PhD researchers for PhD researchers. The monthly meetings vary in structure, with the PhD researchers' suggestions and research at the very core of the colloquium. Since the onset of Covid-19 the monthly research colloquia have continued to take place virtually.

Examples of content include:

- Research Presentations by PhDs
- Show and tell (research ideas and tips ideas worth sharing)
- Preparing for the viva voce
- Discussion on contemporary issues in business research
- News and up-coming events at the KBS, nationally and internationally including conferences, courses, seminars, jobs and special issues,
- Student wellbeing and resilience
- International research student experiences
- Invited speakers

All KBS PhD researchers and research Master students are welcome to attend and to participate in the meetings and their ideas will help to ensure that the KBS PhD colloquium benefits all those involved.
