Conference Venue
The conference venue is the Kemmy Business School at the University of Limerick. The University enjoys a really beautiful parkland campus which spans both sides of the Shannon River. See this link for a virtual tour of the University Campus. The map below shows the Kemmy Business School relative to the accommodation options listed below.

Getting there
If you’re flying into Ireland, Shannon is the closest airport, but there are also very good connections from Dublin Airport.

From Shannon
The nearest airport is Shannon Airport, located 24km from Limerick. The easiest, quickest and most convenient ways to travel from Shannon to the University of Limerick is to take a taxi with Speeditaxis, or via bus.

Bus Eireann operates a services from Shannon Airport to Limerick City Centre, buses run every half an hour and the bus stop is located directly outside the terminal, fares are approximately €7:00.

From the city centre you can take a taxi, connecting bus or walk to the University campus. From Shannon Airport stay on the bus until it reaches the main Limerick City Bus Station located at Colbert Station, Parnell Street, Limerick. There are taxis available at the station which will take you to your accommodation or the Kemmy Business School for approximately €10.00. A regular bus service also runs to the University campus from the city centre, but this leaves from a location about a 15 minute walk from the station. A single fare on this city bus costs €1.70.

Speeditaxis to offer a rate of €35 from the airport to either your accommodation or direct to the Kemmy Business School. The journey time is around 30-40 minutes. You can book online at speeditaxis@eircom.net or by phone +35361 318844.

From Dublin

There are regular train links from Heuston Station in Dublin city centre to Limerick, and very good bus connections from Dublin Airport direct to University of Limerick with three main bus companies operating the route. A single fare costs between €15 and €25, and the journey generally takes between 2.5 and 3.5 hours. If you take an express service, the journey is smooth and comfortable, mainly on motorway, and most companies offer wifi on board.

Dublin Coach  Offers a very frequent and fast service, with one change about 20 minutes from Dublin Airport at the Red Cow Luas Stop. It stops inside the University Campus, a 2-minute walk from the Kemmy Business School. It leaves from Dublin Airport, Zone 16 (Coach Park) behind Terminal 1 beside the Church.

JJ Kavanagh  This bus is less frequent, and takes a little longer, but has two convenient destination stops. The stop at the UL Flagpoles (main gate of the University) is a 2-minute walk from the Castletroy Park Hotel, and a 5-minute walk from the Kemmy Business School, while the stop inside the University Campus is a 2-minute walk from the Kemmy Business School. It leaves from Dublin Airport, Bus Stop 7, Zone 12.

Eireagle  This is a direct service, which stops at the Hurlers Pub close to the University Campus, which is a 1-minute walk from the Kilmurry Lodge Hotel. It leaves from Dublin Airport Zone 14.
