

Welcome

I am delighted that you have applied to study at University of the West of Scotland. You will join a large group of international students at the University and I hope that you have a rewarding time, both personally and academically, during your stay in Scotland.

Offer

You must have received and accepted an unconditional offer before you come to the University. If you have not please follow the instructions detailed in your conditional offer letter.

Orientation and enrolment

Check out www.uws.ac.uk/welcome for advice on when to arrive at the University and for details of the orientation and enrolment activities which have been organised by your School of study.

Accommodation

Visit www.uws.ac.uk/accommodation to ensure that you have completed an online accommodation application so that a room in the Halls of Residence can be reserved for you.

Student Aid parcel

On arrival at the University please collect a Student Aid parcel from Student Link, located next to Qwerty's internet café. Your parcel will provide useful information about the University, the local area and Scotland. Please take time to read through the enclosed booklets and take note of the important actions that you will have to undertake, e.g. registering with a doctor.

Pre-departure and arrival information

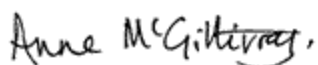

Visit www.uws.ac.uk/international/orientation for useful information on what to bring, travel advice, and to download arrival information including campus maps.

Planning for life in the UK

Prepare for life as a student in Scotland by reading up on what to expect. UKCISA (www.ukcisa.org.uk) and Education UK (www.educationuk.org/Life-in-UK) are essential sources of information.

I look forward to welcoming you to the University and wish you every success with your future studies.

With best regards

Dr Anne McGillivray
Dean of Students
