² The Netherlands has signed treaties regarding health insurance with the following countries: all of the EU member states, Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Turkey, Morocco, most of the countries of former Yugoslavia, Tunisia, Cape Verde Islands and Australia. If you are insured under the national health insurance scheme of one of these countries, your insurance company can provide you with an international declaration form called E-111 or E-128. Make sure to bring this form with you to the Netherlands.
