ABOUT THE COURSE

Volda University College (VUC) offers a 1-year, 60 ECTS course in Norwegian language and civilization for international students (NIS). It is an intensive, high quality study programme which qualifies for further studies in Norwegian at universities and university colleges. Upon completion, students will reach a Norwegian language proficiency equivalent to the B2-level (CEFR).

In addition to learning Norwegian language, the course is also meant to make it easier for international students to adapt to Norwegian academic culture and the Norwegian society in general.

The course is a demanding full-time study programme over two semesters – autumn (August-December) and spring (January-June). Attendance is obligatory (80%).
