

SEMESTER/YEAR/SUMMER PROGRAMS

California State University
MONTEREY BAY
International Programs

Semester, year, and summer programs at CSUMB are a great way for students to experience American culture, advance their degrees, and improve English proficiency. Students live and study with Americans and can participate in all campus clubs and activities. The International Programs Office also organizes special excursions designed to help students discover all that California has to offer.

SEMESTER@CSUMB, INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE, & SUMMER@CSUMB

California State University, Monterey Bay offers international students a multitude of options for semester and year-long programs. All interested students may apply directly to CSUMB through the Semester@CSUMB and Summer@CSUMB options, while students whose home universities have a partnership with CSUMB or an affiliate organization may be eligible to participate in an exchange program. The differences between the options are slight, and once on-campus, all students can expect the same outstanding academic and cultural experience.

Not sure if your university has a partnership?
