TRANSPORTATION

How to get to Prague

By plane

The Václav Havel Airport Prague (former Prague - Ruzyně Airport) - 50 regular airlines connect Prague directly to about 130 destinations around the world.

Prague airport is not far from the city centre and can be reached by bus or taxi.

By bus: There is a number of companies (Eurolines, Student Agency, etc.) providing luxury, air-conditioned buses. At present, you can travel to the Czech Republic by bus from practically any country in Europe.

By train: The Czech Republic is well-connected with the European rail network with daily service to many European cities.

For more details about travelling by bus and train within the Czech Republic and to neighbouring countries see www.idos.cz.

By car: The driver and all the passengers' seatbelts must be fastened. Use of a mobile phone is not permitted while driving. There are highway vignettes in the Czech Republic. There is a zero tolerance for alcohol policy. For more information please click here.

Taxi: One of the safest and least expensive solutions is to order a car through a taxi operator. The fares are usually much lower compared to hailing a taxi in the street (the difference can be up to 10 CZK / km).

The orange validation machines print the date and time on the ticket. From this time on the "validity period" of the ticket begins.

The underground runs from 4-5 o'clock in the morning until the midnight (depending on line). At night you can use night buses and trams which run every 20 minutes. For more information visit website www.dpp.cz.

Public Transport in Prague for Students

Prague has a wide network of trams, buses and underground (the “metro”). For more details about public transport please see this website. Here you can find information about the fares in Prague.

Ticket inspection is likely to occur and it is not worth take the risk – if a passenger fails to produce a valid, properly stamped ticket, the fine can be up to 1500 CZK (approx. 55 EUR).

While studying at MUP you can get a long-term pass that is cheaper than buying the ticket every day. For long-term passes you will need a printed photography (35 x 45 mm).

Long-term passes for students (up to 26 years of age; study confirmation is required)	Long-term passes for adults:
30-day pass – 260 CZK	30-day pass – 550 CZK
90-day pass – 720 CZK	90-day pass – 1480 CZK
5-month pass – 1200 CZK	5-month pass – 2450 CZK
10-month pass – 2400 CZK	1-year pass – 3650 CZK

You will get the application form and confirmation of study for the long-term pass at the Orientation Day. Not before. So if you arrive earlier than to the Orientation Day, you have to buy the normal tickets.

Courses for exchange students

All exchange students can choose from both Bachelor's and Master's Degree courses (it is an advantage given to exchange students only) from the lists mentioned below with one exception: in case your major is not International Business, you cannot take any classes from this department as, unfortunately, the places are limited.

Every subject is credited by 5 ECTS, including foreign languages and Czech for Foreigners.

MUP CLASSIFICATION SCALE:

- 1 - Excellent: 88 – 100%
- 2 - Very good: 74 – 87%
- 3 - Good: 64 – 73%
- 4 - Fail: 0 – 63%

Every course is allocated 90 minutes of in-class lecturing per week during the 12 weeks of the semester. Students are expected to dedicate approximately the same amount of time to readings and class preparation.

The complete three-year Bachelor's Degree study programme at Metropolitan University Prague is equivalent to 180 ECTS credits. The complete Master's Degree study programme at Metropolitan University Prague is equivalent to 120 ECTS credits.

Language Courses

Czech Language for Foreigners

Exchange students can attend free of charge the language course Czech for Foreigners. Lectures are held twice a week in MUP Jarov building, Učňovská 100/1.

Foreign Language Courses: English, French, German, Russian, Spanish

You may also attend other language courses free of charge. Beside Czech for Foreigners, MUP Department of Foreign Languages offers the following language courses on different levels: English, French, German, Russian, and Spanish. The courses take place in the language classrooms of MUP Jarov building, Učňovská 100/1.

Sport Courses

MUP Sports Club offers MUP and exchange students diverse sport and fitness courses such as ballet for beginners, basketball, beach volleyball, body styling, BOSU, circuit training, climbing, floorball, futsal, golf, Irish set dancing, modern and contemporary dance, power yoga, Thai boxing, zumba. The students pay for attending these courses, and vary every semester. The fee for one semester-long course is approximately 400 CZK. MUP Sports Club also organises annual tournaments in beach volleyball, indoor soccer, golf, table tennis and regular skiing, and cycling and hiking trips.

MUP library and study room

The Jiří Hájek Specialised Library is located in MUP Strašnice building and provides study-related services to MUP and exchange students, collects, maintains, and loans specialised literature with respect to the requirements of MUP study programme and their objectives. Students are welcome to use on-line catalogue at

<http://s-knihovna.mup.cz/katalog/eng/baze.htm>

The usual loan period is fourteen days.

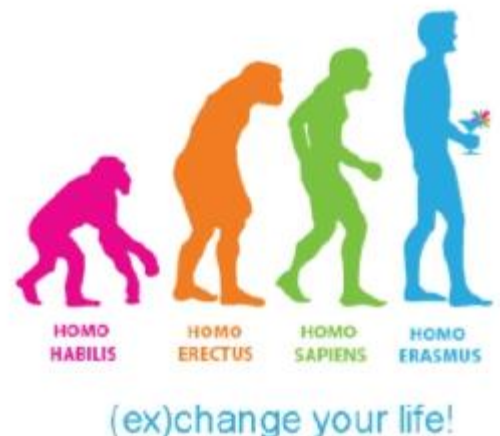

Adjacent to the library is a study room where you can find work stations equipped with computers. You may use this area to access online study materials, edit your documents, save your files, and scan and photocopy at the self-service photocopier.

MUP Buddy Team

Organising of MUP Buddy Team is our way to help incoming exchange students establish social and academic network as soon as they arrive in Prague.

- be in touch with exchange students before their arrival via e-mail
- to provide pick-up at the airport / train / bus station
- assist when reporting to the Foreign Police
- arrange necessary documents, e.g. public transport card
- guide you around Prague
- be your friends
- organise events such as trips and cultural events
