Title: The Dance Theatre of Ireland Papers

Dates of Creation: 1989-2012

Level of Description: Fonds

Extent and Medium: 5 boxes (201 files)

CONTEXT

Name of Creator(s): Dance Theatre of Ireland

Administrative History: Dance Theatre of Ireland was founded in June 1989 by Robert Connor and Loretta Yurick, former members of Dublin Contemporary Dance Theatre. Since its inception, the company has created and produced some forty dance works for theatre, festivals, and television, and presented and commissioned work of international choreographers to introduce dance in its wider context to the Irish audience. The company has toured most major venues in Ireland and participated in some of the most prestigious festivals and theatres in Europe, Korea, and the USA. In 2000, with the support of the Arts Council, Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council, and Dunloe Ewart Properties, Dance Theatre of Ireland opened a purpose-built Centre for Dance to provide a permanent home for the company, rehearsal space for new work, and a venue for dance classes and workshops to dance enthusiasts of all ages.

Immediate Source of Acquisition: Donated by Dance Theatre of Ireland to the National Dance Archive of Ireland on 1 November 2011.

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

Scope and Content: Prospectuses, press profiles, and promotional material providing background information to the origins and development of Dance Theatre of Ireland; and posters, flyers, promotional material, photographs, and recordings relating to dance works created by Robert Connor, Loretta Yurick, and other artists for Dance Theatre of Ireland and the company's collaboration with other international dance groups.
