Department of Politics and Public Administration

Autumn 2026 Seminar Series

Unless indicated otherwise, all seminars start at 3pm

Week/Date		Speaker(s)	Title	Venue
4	30 September	Conor Little (UL)	"Do parties matter for climate change mitigation policy? Testing the party government hypothesis using data on parties' climate policy preferences"	Main Building, A1-054
5	7 October	Ranier Abengada (UCD)	"Temporal domination in the work society: when does withdrawal become political?"	Main Building, A1-054
6	14 October	••• No seminar this week •••
7	21 October	Owen Worth (UL)	"World order and the era of farce"	Main Building, A1-054
8	28 October	Emma Dolan (UL) and El Reid-Buckley (UCD)	"Oh, if they could only give us the bare minimum!': Repoliticising public space in the context of urban imagination crisis"	Main Building, A1-054
9	4 November	••• No seminar this week •••
10	11 November	Claire Dupont (Ghent)	"Identifying and understanding backlash to climate policy in the European Union"	Main Building, A1-054
11	18 November	Martin Mullins and Eamon Leonard (UL)	"The Missing Middle of Digital Governance: Regional Administrative Capacity in SME Digitalisation and AI Adoption"	Main Building, A1-054
12	25 November	Øyvind Høie Henrisken (University of Inland Norway)	"Pragmatic Perfectionism - the natural next step for strong welfare states"	Main Building, A1-054

All welcome!