CONTINUOUS PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION MODULES

THERAPEUTIC ENGAGEMENT*

Module Overview

This module examines the theoretical foundations and application of therapeutic engagement and counselling. The module analyses a range of approaches in nursing/midwifery, such as cognitive and behavioural, humanistic and psychodynamic approaches to the therapeutic process and counselling. Particular attention is given to therapeutic engagement with specific client needs across the care continuum.

*This module can be taken as a stand-alone module or as part of the MSc Nursing programmes offered by the Department of Nursing and Midwifery. Students can take up to two modules without enrolling on a full programme of study and programme enrolment occurs each Aug/Sept.
