

Peace and Development Seminars
Spring Semester 2015

Date	Room	Speaker	Title
26 February	CSG-025	Mags Liddy, UL	Overseas volunteering: Examining the benefits and the challenges
5 March	ERO-020 Graduate Attributes Hub	Cathy Bollaert, University of Ulster	Peace-building in divided multicultural societies: Insights from post-Apartheid South Africa
12 March	CSG-025	Emma Murphy, Amawele	Development education and civil society work between Ireland and South Africa
19 March*	CSG-025	Tom Lodge, UL	The effects of one party dominant politics in South Africa: harmful or benign?
26 March	CSG-025	Jon McCourt, peace activist	"If I have seen further, it is because I have been standing on the shoulders of giants": Perspectives on peace and conflict in Northern Ireland
16 April	CSG-025	Fergal Quinn, UL	Journalism and development in a post-conflict environment: An insider perspective on the Cambodian experience
23 April	ERO-020 Graduate Attributes Hub	Judi Pettigrew, UL	Everyday life during Nepal's civil war

Note: This seminar starts at 12.30 pm.*

All talks are at 1 pm and will be followed by discussion.

Contact: Ingrid.Samset@ul.ie