

UNIVERSITY OF LIMERICK
OLLSCOIL LUIMNIGH

Department of Politics and Public Administration

Department of Politics and Public Administration
Spring 2022 Online Seminar Series

Unless indicated otherwise, all seminars start at 2pm, via MSTeams.
All welcome – click on the link in the right hand column to attend

Week 3 (February 9) Eszter Kollar (KU Leuven) Justice in Labour Immigration: A Trilemma	Click here
Week 4 (February 16) Marina Selnitsyna (UL) Russia's Divided Democrats: Splits and Barriers to Coalition-Building (2011-2019)	Click here
Week 5 (February 23) Caitlin Ryan (Groningen) Gendered citizenship: Land reform, legitimacy, and the limits of inclusive statebuilding in Liberia and Sierra Leone	Click here
Week 6 (March 2) Leslie Huckfield (Glasgow Caledonian University) Is the marketisation of the third sector in the UK stoppable?	Click here
Week 7 (March 9) Neil Robinson (UL) F'ing Russia	Click here
Week 8 (March 16) Barbara Gruber (Groningen) Affective Subjectivation in Radicalization Prevention	Click here
Week 9 (March 23) Elaheh Koolae (Tehran) TBA	Click here
Week 10 (March 30) Michele Gazzola (Ulster) The multilingual public administration: Government in linguistically diverse societies	Click here
Week 11 (April 6) Joseph Lacey (UCD) Political Spectatorship: The Role of Political Marketing in Political Communication	Click here
Week 12 (April 20) Martijn Schoonvelde (Groningen) Do Candidates Signal Policy Priorities or Constituency Engagement? Examining Campaign Communication on Twitter using Transfer Learning (co-authored with Stefan Müller, James Cross and Derek Greene).	Click here